Marduk Lands in Africa?

Secret Space War - Part III

Occasionally a good rumor is entertaining as well as distracting from the often negative barrage of daily world news which is usually slanted to indicate the demise of good and the triumph of evil.

This article involves a story which I certainly hope turns out to be just a funny rumor. The problem is that the source for this story has very deep inter-connections and usually is right on the money.

And there are certain background details which create many more questions than they answer.

And it is these questions which seem most significant to me and which therefore generate many more questions and raise new issues.

A very strange trip to Africa during the last week of June 2013 for the last three American Presidents.

In the June 18, 2013 issue of the Africa Review (Kenya, Africa), a very interesting story detailed expected interesting visits of both former President Clinton and current President Obama to Senegal, Africa. [1]

This alone has not received any suitable explanation other than the flimsy reason that they were there to commemorate the "Ile Ces Ecl" bombing of the US Embassy in Dar es Salaam.

And believe it or not former President George W. Bush is alleged to also have arrived in Africa during this time period.

Former US President Bill Clinton is expected in Senegal hours before the arrival of the incumbent President Barack Obama, sources said.

The leading Le Populaire daily on Tuesday quoted American embassy sources hinting that the two statesmen could likely meet during their stay in Dakar.

The sources further said that President Obama was expected to extend his visit initially billed for 48 hours to 72 hours, beginning June 26.

Several visiting world leaders, including, former UN Secretary-General Kofi Annan and the late Pope Jean Paul II, have visited Senegal over the last decade and toured the famous slave dungeon on Goree Island.

This visit of three American Presidents to the continent of Africa during the same time period is unprecedented in history and would appear to require an extraordinary explanation which has not been forthcoming.

As if this story weren't already strange enough it gets even stranger, a story in CNN Politics on June 22, 2013 stated that President Obama and former President George W. Bush were to be on the African continent at the same time. [2]

Obama flies Wednesday across the Atlantic for a trip that takes him to Senegal, South Africa and Tanzania, marking his second visit to sub-Saharan Africa as president and his second trip to Ghana during his first term.

Meanwhile Bush, who's made multiple visits to Africa since leaving office, leaves next week for Zambia, where he's scheduled to join fellow leading philanthropists to renovate a clinic that will serve as a cervical cancer screening and treatment center, according to the George W. Bush Presidential Center.

While the 44th and 43rd presidents have not scheduled to meet in Dar, last week Michelle Obama will attend an event hosted in part by former first lady Laura Bush. The two will attend the African First Ladies Summit, put on by the George W. Bush Institute and the Clinton Foundation, in Washington, DC, next week.

And to Africa was a big part of the Bush administration's foreign policy. The former president started the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief, otherwise known as PEPFAR, that has saved millions of lives around the world.

Started in 2003, the program grew into a $50 billion program to combat AIDS around the globe through testing, counseling and medical treatment.[3]

President Obama changed his African trip schedule

It was announced that President Obama changed his schedule to extend his stay from 48 to 72 hours in Senegal (3). No reason was given for this change.

The Washington Post reported that the change which President Obama's trip. It reported that his plans to participate in a Tanzanian safari were cancelled and changed to a visit to Robben Island, the place where Nelson Mandela was held for 18 of his 27 years as a prisoner of the white rule. [4]

As the story goes was reported that it was suggested that objections voiced over the use of special wiper rifles for use by President Obama's hunt range that were specifically banned for use by his personal security detail. Was there a concern arising that this special protection team could not be trusted and perhaps be turned?

Is the hunting ban CIA protecting Black Ops Programs and concluding targeted hunts that President Obama had remarked to a friend that he had backed off on campaign promises because he was afraid of ending up like JFK. [5]

Or perhaps this was just a cover story for an African vacation? Or perhaps it was a combination of President Obama's handlers, opening up his schedule for "surprise" or at least highly desired meeting with a very powerful dignitary?

Here is President Obama's official travel schedule (4). His schedule extends to visit to Senegal the same time as former President Clinton. President Obama joined George W. Bush at a special Tanzania memorial to end his African trip. [6]

It was reported that Bush and Obama just happened to find time to meet together by coincidence in Tanzania on July 2, 2013, to lay a wreath at the site of the 1998 "Al Qa'Ida" bombing of the U.S. Embassy. [7]

But could former President Clinton have been there too at the same time and could there have been a special meeting between Clinton and Obama that the media did not have been in such a hurry covering before bringing it overlooked?

Or could each president have visited Senegal earlier and individually met with a very special world dignitary who is currently assuming power, but in Africa and for the time being is not a very good time to expect his MSM final between which necessitates throwing Kingpins and Cutouts under the bus?

Is this "mystery meeting" powerful dignitary that is the actual ruler of the Third Force that has descended to Earth to assert control over the nations?

Certainly the visitation of a current sitting American president at the same time as two prior American Presidents to the African continent is unprecedented. This alone suggests that something very strange is up.

Of course with the apparent impending death of Nelson Mandela, control over the South American regime is now perhaps up for grabs. Is this why Obama is going to Africa? Is he going to Africa to meet with a so-called Barbaric regime, arising from a large scale social experiment.

Could this then consider the triangular CIA center built in Johannesburg to represent the interests of the City of London. Illuminati.

In President Obama's speech at Tanzania, he said that America was going to get more involved in Africa not just for humanitarian aid but also for business and trade. Is this a veiled reference to Africa's mineral wealth?

This was a surprisingly blunt and honest acknowledgment since traditionally any involvement in South American or African nations has been cloaked in terms like "foreign aid" and "humanitarian assistance" to justify ruthless, exploitive, unlimited supply of money to buy and bribe governmental officials, creating massive intel systems to blackmail and compromise officials, setting up Rockefeller Foundations to control the education and thinking of the population, and to create a massive, controlled bureaucracy of mass media entertainment and established systems to keep them from turning into a violent, anti-government revolt.

And one crumb one must not overlook the power of money to buy and corrupt, so it is easy to understand why the creation of a centralized privately-held banking system to control the money supply involving billions of dollars-in-place of the serfs of the middle ages is so vital to the creation of the corrupted base which can allow the NWO Globalist "alien leader" dart to lyckle to gain a Strong foothold and take over control of all the nations of the world.

The upward facing triangle is Anunnaki fallen angel blood of the Nephilim, the "great men of old" and the downward facing triangle is the blood of the human race.

Merged together they form the six pointed star, called the hex or the Babylonian "luciferian hex", a symbol of Anunnaki/Nephilim bloodline dominion over the human race.

It is interesting that it has been alleged by several top researchers of UFOs and alien visitations, that the triangle symbolizes the Anunnaki almost as much as the swastika is intimately involved in millions of animal abductions and dissections.

Some have alleged that the Anunnaki have been a large number of human abductees.

Some historians say this was used by King Solomon when he returned to "foreign gods" and became "heasd" or worshipped the star of the goddess Ashtoreth.

He was pointed star were never used by most Hebrews to describe their various tribes or nations. It was adopted in modern times by the Zionist Jews. The Star of David is also known as the "Star of Ishtar" or Babylonian Star of Ishtar", getting all the way back to Babylon and was adopted by the super-architects of Freemasonry.

Most non-zionist Judeists have no idea what the hex star really represent and would be horrified if they understood.

The nation of Israel flies the hex flag and this symbolizes that it is a pure hex-masonic nation run by the luciferians and that the Israeli government and military and all its citizens are under Anunnaki control.

So, two Marduk landed, has he made his final return to take back planet earth and establish a complete luciferian globalist NWO system? And if so does he represent the Third Force that has been waiting in the wings waiting patiently in the background?

And are some astute researchers have stated, the Third Force is remarkably deceptive and crafty and uses Kingpins and Cutouts to do its dirty work, typically disposing of them by throwing them under the bus after their missions are completed.

The Third Force [8]

The Third Force has never been regarded as being akin to treat any Kingpins or Cutouts [9] it selects and uses with loyalty.

Once their mission is completed, they are thrown under the bus. The best evidence as to that is that Third Force is an ancient and entity which has existed for millennia and has developed many techniques of control.

It does not like humans, nor does it experience any human emotions. It is a beast, a blood thirsty demonic fallen angel that is extremely powerful and highly intelligent. It has been around for a very long time and has developed the human victims and abductees perfect 24/7 slaves are its forte.

It's apparent goal to destroy the human race through war, destruction, high-tech eugenics, and various sophisticated soft-kill methods, while creating the super-race of luciferian/Anunnaki/Nephilim hybrids that take over/govern that is one-world, and a beast with no conscience.

Many researchers state that the luciferian NWO plan involves complete replacement of humans with genetically-spliced trans-human kings which are inhabited by evil fallen angels (aka demons).

And of course the Third Force is the ultimate conspiracy and which functions with from a power block that runs the world central banking systems is now well entrenched in the continent of Africa and has deployed major covert eugenic programs to create genetically-spliced hybrids that are considered necessary to control the resources and wealth of the continent.

Tic, we're from the US Government and we are here to help you" (The biggest lie ever told?)

Thus when Presidents are up 40 Billion dollar plans to help prevent and treat aids in Africa one must be very suspect.

It is always like the old saying goes, the time to start worrying is when the suits show up and say,

"hi, we're from the government and we're here to help you."

And that includes all the other supposed "good" programs the Gates vaccination help and other sophisticated means which can allegedly be turned as used as sterilization or "thin the herd" depopulation means.

Thus we find many of these large corporations like Wal-mart, Monsanto and the Chinese business ventures too, as the various NWO power structures compete to grab up as much as they can.

And when these American Presidents show up in Africa, at the same time, one wonders how such a remarkable occurrence could be explained. And then when a highly placed respected source shares a rumor that an "alien ruler" from the past has returned as the new ruler of the world, one wonders if there is a connection and one wonders, could this be the reason?

Edward Snowden is alleged to have just made a major new disclosure which if true, could be a game changer and could possibly result in the collapse of the government.

And now a new claim has entered the situation. A recent article (12) from an unvetted source now claims not only has Snowden made a major new disclosure but that Snowden has revealed that the CIA and specifically NSA has created artificial UFOs and Aliens and [10]

"doesn't know what to do with this information".

Sometimes misinformation sites are used to break real news so that it will be ignored and discredited. Kind of like using "blown cover" as "cover" in the intel business.

Stay tuned because in the weeks and months to follow this whole storyline may get even stranger. Veterans Today will likely be the first to break such any such stories which clarify any of the bizarre new way in the other.

Addendum and Postscript for those who have the time and interest

Steven Greer MD a great American Hero who has done more integrity in actual deep black anti-gravity craft programs of the Secret Shadow Government (SSG) and associated threats of extermination with extreme prejudice (THEP) for talking about them.

Richard Dolan clarifies many of the difficult issues related to the complex issues and misuses of "national security" to protect the "national security status" at the expense of America and Americans.

Certainly the related cover-up and massive asset stripping of Americans is criminal and completely unConstitutional as well as illegal and immoral. The crimes in this perhaps the greatest speech on disclosure ever made by another very great and courageous American Hero.

Stephen Bassett laid out what he believes is the crucial issue of how best for the people to take back control of their government that was given to the Defense Contractor World during the cold war as it was built up into a massive trillion dollar Secret Shadow Government (SSG).

The Third Force cannot gain ground when folks are unwilling to harm others and do what is wrong.

The Third Force is only able to gain ground and power as long as humans behave in unnatural ways and violate god almighty's laws. Disease and illness is caused by violating the golden rule, harming others, oneself or one's family or nation is what gives the Third Force a means to invade.

If individuals truly follow the "golden rule" of treating others as you would like them to be treat you", refuse to be mind-controlled by the Controlled Major Mass Media (CMMM), television, video games, maintain their personal character, a commitment to truth, and refuse to participate in violence, then the Third Force cannot gain a foothold in the family and nation from outside invaders and any enemy within, this evil onslaught of the Third Force can be stopped.
